

Dr Margot Sunderland is available for cutting edge audio-visual lecture presentations, training days, keynote addresses on a wide range of topics in child mental health. Her wealth of powerful images, film footage and case histories, along with highly accessible use of language, means delegates go away moved, inspired and informed.

Dr Margot Sunderland is:

- Director of Education and Training at The Centre for Child Mental Health London, Honorary Visiting Fellow at London Metropolitan University, Senior Associate Member of the Royal College of Medicine, Child Psychotherapist with over thirty years experience of working with children, teenagers, parents and an award winning author.
- Co-Director of Trauma-Informed Schools UK (TISUK) commissioned to deliver mental health training to every school in Cornwall.
- Author of over twenty books in the field of child mental health, which collectively have been translated into eighteen languages and published in twenty-four countries.
- Author of the internationally acclaimed book, 'The Science of Parenting' (Dorling Kindersley) which won First Prize in the British Medical Association Medical Book awards 2007 and is endorsed by the world's leading affective neuroscientist, Professor Jaak Panksepp. The book has also been voted as one of the top brain books of our time by The Dana Foundation.
- Chief Executive and Founding Director of the Higher Education College, The Institute for Arts in Therapy and Education which is Academic Partner of University of East London. The College offers Masters Degrees in Child Psychotherapy and Arts Psychotherapy.
- Member of the Early Years Commission, Centre for Social Justice, Westminster and co-author of the Cross Party Advisory Report 'The Next Generation' (early years intervention).
- Founder of the 'Helping Where it Hurts' a programme offering free arts therapy to troubled children in North London Primary schools.

Over 20 years Dr Sunderland has carried out a meta-analysis of the scientific and psychological research on the long-term impact of adult/child relationships on the child's developing brain and mind.

Dr Sunderland lectures all over the world on the psychology and neuroscience of child and teenage mental health, offering a wealth of practical strategies and interventions, always underpinned by the latest research. She makes TV and radio appearances as a child and parenting expert. Overall, she is concerned to ensure that parents, teachers and mental health professionals alike, are offered the most up to date psychological and brain science research on how children and young people can be enabled to thrive. She is passionate about social change for a kinder, warmer world.

Dr Margot Sunderland
www.margotsunderland.org
www.childmentalhealthcentre.org
www.artspsychotherapy.org

If you would like further information: Please contact Ruth Bonner at info@childmentalhealthcentre.org or ring The Centre for Child Mental Health London on 0207 354 2913. Please inform us of the title and topic on which you would like Dr Sunderland to present, who the delegates are, how many there will be, length of presentation and area of the country. Alternatively please fill in and return the form overleaf. Margot does not usually agree to lecture for under an hour. For fees, terms and conditions, please see overleaf.

Press/News comment/Features: Please contact Margot Sunderland's publicist Kelli Hooks at Livewire: Kelli.Hooks@livewirepr.com

Fees, terms conditions and request form for presentation by Dr Margot Sunderland

2-18 Britannia Row, London N1 8PA
Tel: 020 7354 2913
www.childmentalhealthcentre.org

Director of Education and Training, The Centre for Child Mental Health

Training day up to 6 hours including lunch/breaks £2559

Training day over 6 hours including lunch/breaks £3200

(maximum length 7 hours)

Half day rate or up to half a day (Maximum length 3 hours excluding half hour break)
£1795 (Additional £100 fee if travel is over 4 hours (from Canterbury to the venue))

Small groups As the lecture presentations are designed for larger groups, Dr Sunderland regrets she cannot accept bookings for under 60 delegates

To secure your booking: 50% of the fee is due, along with the signed booking form, returned by email or post. Once a date has been agreed by both parties, an invoice for the 50% will be submitted. The remaining 50% of the fee is due within 21 days of the event.

International Presentations or those requiring a flight e.g. Ireland – please apply with specific details for individual quotation.

Title of presentation:
Name of organisation:
Name of the conference or training event:
Date of training event:
Type of presentation, e.g. keynote, training day, break-out session:
Start and end time of presentation:
Age range you want covered in the presentation:
Delegate numbers expected:
Professions of delegates (e.g. social worker, teacher):
What will delegates be hoping to gain from the presentation:
Name address and postcode of Conference venue:

Cheques or BACS payable to Dr HM Sunderland within 30 days of the event.

Please note: the advance fee is not returnable in the event of any cancellation or postponement of the engagement by you. It is returned in full if Dr Sunderland cannot attend or find an agreed replacement, but this has never happened. Late payment fee: 15 percent will be added to the bill. (We understand and will exercise the statutory right to interest under the Late Payment of Commercial Debts (Interest) Act 1998 if we are not paid according to agreed credit terms.)

A/V: The booking is made on the understanding that Dr Sunderland can use her own laptop, due to the high level of complexity regarding film footage, brain scans and high resolution visual images which are not transferable.

Filming and recording: Due to copyright issues, sensitive case material and parental permissions, we regret that the filming or audio recording of Dr Sunderland's presentations is not permitted. Handouts: An e-copy of the handout will be provided before or after the presentation. Please note that this will be the full text (not the images, due to complex copyright/parental permission issues) of the slides of the presentation. A selection of key images will also be provided.

Fees agreed

I agree to pay Dr HM Sunderland, the sum of plus travel (and if morning start outside Canterbury, one night's accommodation). Costs includes all preparation time (usually a day's work), to ensure the presentation fully meets the particular training needs of your organisation, travel time, and a handout. The latter to be printed for the delegates by the organisation itself. I also agree to abide by the terms and conditions as set out above and to pay Dr HM Sunderland.

Name:

(please print including position in organisation)

Signature:

Date:

Organisation name and address:

Telephone:

Email: